Does anyone who installs this file install a new dll when the program is run? have you noticed an increased load time after installation? If you.. A: I am a mod on The Games_Channels, but as I haven't seen a version of this question asked on there so far I thought I'd post an answer here so it may be easier for people who come across it from google to find quickly :) It looks like the file is from a dodgy website, it has previously been removed from IGG due to the issues with malware, so I would advise not installing this. If you do want to download it in the future, you can get the correct version from here. I don't think this is the wrong post, it seems that the site is redirecting people to it. The folder you're looking for is called "ms_wnx" this folder is in the location "c:\windows\system32\config\systemprofile\.settings" For users of Windows 10, it's in "c:\users\username\.local\userdata\microsoft" Sunday, March 17, 2010 I am so excited to see what the creative mama's are creating! I absolutely fell in love with the Card Makers' challenge. It sounded like a lot of fun, and I didn't get all the details from the site, until I saw this: "All you have to do to enter is make a card, create a mixed media art piece, or create a bookmark, something using a quote, an inspirational saying or phrase, etc." Well that is all it takes! So off to the Card Makers site I went to find out all of the details! I decided to create an 8.5"x11" lacy bookmark. If you haven't checked out the Card Makers' site recently, it was updated and has many new items. I have to say, I am so excited to see f678ea9f9e
